

April 8, 1942.

Mr. J. T. Hailstalk,
232 West 135th St.,
New York City.

Dear Mr. Hailstalk:

I hereby wish to acknowledge receipt of your wire of April 7th, saying your Drum
Corp would play for our Opening Game.

You were so long in answering I was under the impression that you could not play for us, therefore, I had to contract for another Band. Very sorry.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ